Equal Opportunities Policy

At UCL our principal concern when considering applications is to recruit and select students who are likely to complete the programme successfully and derive benefit from it. Once these requirements are met we regard other issues such as disability, ethnic origin, sex, marital status, number of children, beliefs relating to religion, politics and sexual orientation as irrelevant.

Please note that this information will not be passed to any admissions tutor. UCL is required to supply the information to the Higher Education Statistics Agency.

If you have a disability or condition that may require reasonable academic adjustments, please contact Student Support and Wellbeing Services as a priority.

Contact: student.wellbeing@ucl.ac.uk (mailto:student.wellbeing@ucl.ac.uk) , telephone: 0203 108 8836, international +44 203 108 8836.

UCL Student Disability Services share general disability information regarding offer holders with academic departments to ensure that UCL adopts a whole institution approach to disability support. For more information please see <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/disability/policy-confidentiality/disclosure> (<http://www.ucl.ac.uk/disability/policy-confidentiality/disclosure>) or contact Student Disability Services directly at: student.wellbeing@ucl.ac.uk (mailto:student.wellbeing@ucl.ac.uk)
